EVENING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

Henry Ward Beecher's Thanksgiving Dinner.

He thinks the Rebellion Not Yet Subdued.

Possibility of the Government Splitting into Four.

(Special Dispatch to the Daily Express.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Henry Ward Beecher's Thanksgiving sermon to day was one of the most remarkable which he ever delivered, being devoted to the discussion and eulogy of State rights. He did not think the rebellion had settled the questions at issue. He anticipated more secession troubles, and in the event of another rebellion, might go with the South. He discussed the possibility of the Government splitting up into four republics, and said that only universal intelligence and love could save the Republic.

(To the Associated Press.)

Effects of the Storm on the Sound—A

Lost—An Entire Family Butchered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Dispatches from all points south state that Thanksgiving was only celebrated there.

Several disasters to vessels occurred on Long Island on Wednesday. One schooner reported capsized and all on board lost.

A special states that the family of a Mr. Perkins, consisting of himself, wife, and a boy named Gardner, were murdered in Hudson, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, while at supper by two desperadoes, who then plundered the house and set it on fire. They were captured at Altoona soon after, and part of Mr. Perkins' money found in their possession.

A Herald special from Toronto, November 18th, says: Considerable astonishment and uneasiness are caused about the Red river trouble, by an article in the Montreal News, which says: We had private information last night, the purpose of which we made known, that if Mr. McDougall appeared at Red river in his official capacity, serious trouble would ensue. He had rightly or wrongly made himself obnoxious to the Indians. They regarded him as despoiling them of their lands. They said that Sir Francis, in the name of his Majesty, gave them the Mammoth land and their exclusive and unchangeable property, while grass grew or water runs, and that Mr. McDougall, in utter scorn of that gift ordered the white commissioner of crown lands to survey some portions of the island, while the aggravated outrage by impugning to him that he disposed of the land to enrich connections and relatives. We tell the Ottawa Government that it made an awful mistake when it named Mr. McDougall Governor of the Northwest. Recall him, and avoid, except as a last and desperate resort, sending troops thither. There are in the Province many gentlemen tinged with Indian blood, and they are the men the government should court, until colonization has been organized.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A division of the customhouse here, devoted to the shipment of merchandise to the Pacific, has been abolished.

Senator Ramsey, of Minnesota, arrived yesterday from Europe.

The Empress subsequently landed and assisted at the Te Deum and at the Musselman prayers, which were chanted on the occasion of inaugurating the canal.

Ismaia, Nov. 17.—The Imperial yacht Aigle, with the Empress, followed by forty vessels, anchored at Ismaia, having passed through the first part of the canal.

AN ENGLISH ACCOUNT OF THE CANAL OPENING.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The following dispatch has been received from the Isthmus of Suez: Suez, Wednesday Night.—The trip of the first detachment of the fleet with visions was made from Port Said to this place in eight and a half hours. Four steamers had just arrived from Suez, the southern terminus of the canal, and met those from Port Said. The town, banks, canal, and vessels are illuminated, and the night is given up to festivities and rejoicings.

THE DOMINION.

Disasters on the Lakes—Schooners Ashore.

PICOTON, Canada, Nov. 18.—The schooner Thurston, from Port Dalhousie, for Oswego with wheat, is ashore at Nicholson Island, and probably will be a total loss.

The schooner Mori, Capt. Cagle, reported ashore yesterday at West Point, is breaking up, and lumber is coming ashore in every direction.

The schooner Prince Edward froze in while sailing down Long Reach, and had to remain there until the steamer Rochester came along and broke the ice.

CINCINNATI.

Lecture of Captain Hall, the Arctic Explorer.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18.—Captain Hall, the Arctic explorer, spoke at Pike's Hall. The house was perfectly jammed. The lecture was rambling, but the audience was delighted. Joe Hannah and child, Esquimaux, were on the stage in native dress, and excited great interest.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

Harlem Railroad Train Blown Over an Embankment.

Official Count of the State Vote.

Commodore Higgins Exonerated by the Cuban Junta.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The gale of yesterday was spread and unprecedented.

A train on the Harlem railroad was blown from the track near Boston corners. The express and smoking car and two passenger coaches were hurled from the bank a distance of 75 feet. The baggage car was burned with the mail matter. The casualties were less disastrous than the condition of the cars would indicate. A boy named Peter McBride, living in America, was killed and partially buried.

B. S. Carter, of Catkill had his scalp torn off, and severely wounded about the head. Recovery doubtful.

Reuben T. Britt, brakeman, cut in the head and seriously injured.

Herman Jacobin, brakeman, seriously, ribs broken.

J. Hurd, express messenger, slightly injured.

From O'Neill, baggage-master, injured from inhaling steam while attempting to save baggage.

Charles Goodall and wife, of Massachusetts, the former badly hurt about the body and head, and the latter, an old lady, bruised about the head and body; recovery doubtful.

Miss F. A. Parsons, of America; cut about head and neck.

James Halstead, America; injured in face and hands.

Van Vleet, brakeman; considerably injured.

The location of the accident has twice before been the scene of a like catastrophe. It is a gorge in the mountain. The track is now repaired and the injured are receiving proper attention.

CAPT. HIGGINS VINDICATED.

Investigation by the Cuban Junta in the case of Captain Higgins shows the cool put about the Horriet was unjust for use, and completely vindicated his course in putting into Wilmington.

A BOX CONTAINING $30,000 WORTHLESS TENS of the Merchants Bank of Louisville, Ky., dated June, 1862, was found in digging an excavation in Hudson City recently. They were doubtless sent to some Southern sympathizer during the war for emancipation.

THANKSGIVING.

Thanksgiving Day passed off quietly. Religious services were held and sermons preached in nearly all the churches of the city. At the various orphan asylums and charitable institutions dinners were given to the inmates.

River News.

ARRIVALS—Nov. 19.

Gen. Lytle, Cin. Rose Hill, Henderson, Edinburg, New Orleans.

DEPARTURES—Nov. 19.

Gen. Lytle, Cin. Rose Hill, Henderson, Edinburg, New Orleans.

The river is about on a stand, with 3 feet 8 inches water in the canal. Above that continues to rise slowly, which will cause it to come up here about morning. A rain set in again last night about 10 o'clock, accompanied with heavy wind, which continued until about 11, when the rain became general, and still continues in a gentle way. If this rain reaches Edinburg, which we have doubt it will, there will certainly be a rise of 8 or 10 feet.

The Edinburg reached port about 8 o'clock this morning, where she found considerable freight awaiting her. She was to depart for New Orleans at 12 o'clock.

The Champion will be here for St. Louis tomorrow. She leaves at 12 o'clock.

The Gen. Buell was the mailboat this morning. The Lytle goes this afternoon.

The Rose Hill is the afternoon packet for Evansville and Henderson.

Falls City came up last night, after a week of pleasure at French's.

Nick Pennington, second clerk of the Mary Houston, has quit the office of that steamer, and goes on Capt. Dyer's schooner, Edinburg, which the Lacon is now at the wreck of the Stonewall trying to get out her boilers.

A suit has been brought at St. Louis by the Steamer Bell against the Porter for collision damages.

The Lorenzo left New Orleans on the 16th. Our river friends at Memphis had better look out.
